$9,000 Raised for Scholarships and Educational Seminars during the OCF Sporting Clays Shoot

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK. June 27, 2017 - The Oklahoma Cattlemen's Foundation hosted the 4th Annual Sporting Clays Shoot and raised $9,000. The money raised will be used to fund scholarships and host educational programs.

"This year we had 108 shooters," said Jeff Jaronek, OCF Coordinator. "The event has been strong since the beginning. Folks seem to enjoy the event and feel good about the cause that they are supporting."

The event wouldn't be near as successful without a group of industry partners and supporters that sponsor the event.

Sponsors for this event include: Oklahom Ag Credit, Great Plains Kubota, Oklahoma Limousin Breeders, WRCA, Beefmaster Breeders United, BioZyme, Inc, Zinpro Corporation, Oklahoma Farm and Ranch Supply, Pnue-Dart, Southwest Airlines, McAfee & Taft, Foundation Management, Inc, InsureMyForage.com, Livingston Machinery, The Hartford Livestock Insurance, Association Insurance Services, Inc., Sooner Scale Inc. and Seth Wadley.

The high individual shooter was Brian Kelly. The 1st place, A flight team was Oklahoma Ag Credit. Team members were: Gary Kafer, Patrick Stewart, Baler Stewart and Jacob David. The 1st place B flight team was McAfee & Taft. Team members were: Todd Barton, Jerry Hilton, Colby Bird and Joey Gamble. The 1st place team in the flurry shoot was: Baler Stewart and Jacob David.

"Congratulations to the winners, thank you to all the participants and sponsors for shooting to preserve Oklahoma ranching traditions," Jaronek said.

The Oklahoma Cattlemen's Foundation was created to provide a charitable trust for the Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association and Oklahoma Junior Cattlemen's Association. When you support the Oklahoma Cattlemen's Foundation, you support beef cattle educational programs, research projects in cooperation with Oklahoma State University, educational scholarships for Oklahoma's 4-H and FFA youth and the preservation of the Oklahoma beef cattle industry and its traditions.
