Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association Welcomes McKenzie Layton

[Oklahoma City, OK – May 27, 2025] – The Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association (OCA) is excited to announce the addition of McKenzie Layton as the new Communications Manager and OJCA Coordinator.

McKenzie is a graduate of Oklahoma State University with a Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Communications and Journalism and an Associate of Science from Black Hawk East College. In her dual role, McKenzie will be sharing the work, plans, and happenings of the OCA, while also providing a voice for the association through news and social updates. As OJCA Coordinator, she will work directly with young cattlemen and women across the state, fostering leadership, education, and industry involvement among the next generation.

"We're thrilled to have McKenzie on board," said Michael Kelsey, OCA Executive Vice President. "Her strong communication skills, passion for youth involvement, and deep understanding of our industry will be a tremendous asset to both OCA and OJCA."

The OCA is committed to promoting and protecting the Oklahoma cattle industry. The addition of McKenzie showcases the OCA's relentless efforts to provide statewide updates and advocacy for its members.

The OCA is the trusted voice of the Oklahoma Cattle Industry and works to protect and empower Oklahoma cattlemen today, to serve tomorrow. The OCA is the only voice that speaks solely for the cattlemen of Oklahoma and represents beef producers in all 77 counties across the state. The OCA officers, board of directors and membership encourages you to join us in our advocacy efforts to ensure less government intervention, lower taxes, and a better bottom line. For more information about OCA membership, the theft reward program or activities call 405-235-4391 or visit www.okcattlemen.org.
