Courtney McNeff Joins the Staff at the Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association as the North Central/South Central Field Representative

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK. Oct. 18, 2018 – Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association is pleased to announce the addition of Courtney McNeff of Mustang, Okla. to the staff team. Courtney will serve as a Field Representative for the North-Central and South-Central districts.

"OCA is blessed with a staff that is 100% dedicated to the betterment of Oklahoma's beef cattle industry. Courtney will fit in so well to this commitment," said Michael Kelsey, OCA Executive Vice President. "Courtney's responsibilities include working closely with OCA board members, county cattlemen's associations and OCA members to recruit new OCA members and provide unparalleled service to OCA members. I look forward to working with her to accomplish this."

Courtney is one of three OCA field representatives.

"I am excited to implement my knowledge of the beef industry through this position and am prepared to work alongside the producers in the beef industry," said Courtney. "With great enthusiasm, I look forward to meeting and conversing with today's cattlemen to promote the cattle industry."

The OCA is the trusted voice of the Oklahoma Cattle Industry. OCA is the only voice that speaks solely for the cattlemen of Oklahoma and represents beef producers in all 77 counties across the state. The OCA officers, board of directors and membership encourages you to join us in our advocacy efforts to ensure less government intervention, lower taxes and a better bottom line.
