Megan Graves Joins the Staff at the Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association as the Northeast/Southeast Field Representative

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK. Oct. 31, 2018 – Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association is pleased to announce the addition of Megan Graves of Adair, Okla. to the staff team. Megan will serve as a Field Representative for the Northeast and Southeast districts.

"OCA is blessed with a staff that is 100% dedicated to the betterment of Oklahoma's beef cattle industry. Megan will fit in so well to this commitment," said Michael Kelsey, OCA Executive Vice President. "Megan's responsibilities include working closely with OCA board members, county cattlemen's associations and OCA members to recruit new OCA members and provide unparalleled service to OCA members. I look forward to working with her to accomplish this."

Megan is one of three OCA field representatives.

"I am eager to start a new chapter within The Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association and look forward to working with the entire team to further develop their already extensive member base," said Megan. "I feel extremely fortunate to be joining such a respected team that prides itself on leadership as well as being the top advocates for the cattle industry in the State of Oklahoma."

The OCA is the trusted voice of the Oklahoma Cattle Industry. OCA is the only voice that speaks solely for the cattlemen of Oklahoma and represents beef producers in all 77 counties across the state. The OCA officers, board of directors and membership encourages you to join us in our advocacy efforts to ensure less government intervention, lower taxes and a better bottom line. For more information about OCA membership, the theft reward program or activities call 405-235-4391 or visit www.okcattlemen.org.
