Reimer Named Administrative Coordinator for Oklahoma Cattlemen's Foundation

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. May 16, 2022 – Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association (OCA) is pleased to announce the new addition of Mariah Reimer as Oklahoma Cattlemen's Foundation (OCF) Administrative Coordinator. In her position, she will be responsible for developing, promoting and implementing the administration of the Oklahoma Cattlemen's Foundation. Current events and strategies of the OCF include: Steer Carcass Challenge, Annual Sporting Clays Shoot, Scholarships, Convention Education Programs, Annual Foundation Seminar and individual donations.

"We are pleased to announce Mariah Reimer joining the Foundation as Contract Administrator," said Michael Kelsey, OCA Executive Vice President. "Reimer brings a wealth of experience to lead our foundation strategies and events and we are excited about the future opportunities and growth she will bring to the Oklahoma Cattlemen's Foundation."

Reimer is originally from Wellston, OK where her agricultural roots led her to Oklahoma State University. During her time at OSU, she graduated with a bachelor's degree in agricultural communications and went on to pursue a master's degree in administration.

"I am eager to give back to an industry myself and my family are passionate about," said Reimer. "I hope to assist the foundation in creating a base of success for future generations in the Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association."

Reimer and her husband currently reside in Vinita, OK where they raise their two daughters.

The OCA is the trusted voice of the Oklahoma Cattle Industry and works to protect and empower Oklahoma cattlemen today, to serve tomorrow. OCA is the only voice that speaks solely for the cattlemen of Oklahoma and represents beef producers in all 77 counties across the state. The OCA officers, board of directors and membership encourages you to join us in our advocacy efforts to ensure less government intervention, lower taxes and a better bottom line.
