Oklahoma Cattlemen Host Photo Contest Submit your photos by March 31

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK. Jan. 2, 2018– The Oklahoma Cattlemen’s Association is hosting a photo contest again this year.

“The photo contest is a fun way to engage our members and get some fresh stock photos to use year-round in OCA publications.” said Chancey Hanson, OCA Director of Communications. “We’ve found that OCA members love to see photos that they have submitted show up on the OCA’s social media feeds or on the cover of the Oklahoma Cowman.”

All photos must be submitted by March 31, 2018. Late entries will not be accepted. The photographer must be a member of the Oklahoma Cattlemen’s Association, Oklahoma CattleWomen or the Oklahoma Junior Cattlemen’s Association. Photographers may submit one image per category.

The top three photos for each category will be selected by the photo contest selection committee. OCA Facebook fans will vote for a winner in each category from May 1 through July 1, 2018. The winner of each category will receive a registration package to the 2018 OCA Annual Convention and Trade Show, and OCA jacket and OCA cap.

To submit your photo and view complete contest guidelines, visit <http://www.okcattlemen.org/oca-photo-contest>.

The OCA is the trusted voice of the Oklahoma Cattle Industry. OCA is the only voice that speaks solely for the cattlemen of Oklahoma and represents beef producers in all 77 counties across the state. The OCA officers, board of directors and membership encourages you to join us in our advocacy efforts to ensure less government intervention, lower taxes and a better bottom line. For more information about OCA membership, the theft reward program or activities call 405-235-4391 or visit www.okcattlemen.org.
