Oklahoma Cattlemen Host More than 775 Cattlemen at Eight Fall Gatherings

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK. Nov. 16, 2018– The Oklahoma Cattlemen’s Association hosted eight Fall Gatherings scattered throughout the state over the last three weeks. More than 775 cattlemen enjoyed a delicious meal, great fellowship, important legislative and industry updates and greetings from industry partners.

“We had more Fall Gatherings this year than we ever have and had the greatest attendance that we have ever had,” said Weston Givens, OCA President. “We really appreciate our hosts including: Hinz Auction, Clinton; Chattanooga Civic Center, Chattanooga; Baker’s Barn, Alva; Choctaw County Land and Cattle, Boswell; Dismukes Ranch, Checotah; The Lodge at Rock Creek Ranch, Adair; Blackjack Farms, Seminole; and Payne County Stockyards, Perkins.”

Each meal was provided by the Livestock Nutrition Center. Additional sponsors for the OCA Fall Gatherings were: National Livestock, AgBoost, Pickens Auctions, Insure My Forage, Nutrition Plus and ArrowQuip.

“The support of industry is greatly appreciated. It is an encouragement to our members to hear from industry partners and see them backing their organization,” Givens said.

The OCA is the trusted voice of the Oklahoma Cattle Industry. OCA is the only voice that speaks solely for the cattlemen of Oklahoma and represents beef producers in all 77 counties across the state. The OCA officers, board of directors and membership encourages you to join us in our advocacy efforts to ensure less government intervention, lower taxes and a better bottom line.
