Oklahoma Cattlemen Extend Appreciation to Caitlin Williams, 7News in Lawton

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA., July 24, 2018 – The Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association (OCA) presented Caitlin Williams of News7 in Lawton with the OCA Media Appreciation Award. The award was presented during the Annual OCA Awards Banquet held during the 66th OCA Convention and Trade Show in Norman, Okla.

The OCA Media Appreciation Award was created to recognize and honor members of the media who are friends of the OCA and work to promote Oklahoma Agriculture, specifically the beef industry.

"We most heartedly appreciate a media professional who asks good questions, seeks complete answers and gives us a fair opportunity to tell folks our story," said Michael Kelsey, OCA Executive Vice President. "Caitlin really helped us tell our story this year."

Williams has an agricultural background and was born and raised in Sabinal, Texas. She joined the 7News Team in December 2016.

"Caitlin did great job covering the wildfires and the State Beef Checkoff Vote," Kelsey said. "She also regularly communicates with the local cattlemen's associations and tells Agriculture's story anytime she gets the chance."

The OCA is the trusted voice of the Oklahoma Cattle Industry. OCA is the only voice that speaks solely for the cattlemen of Oklahoma and represents beef producers in all 77 counties across the state. The OCA officers, board of directors and membership encourages you to join us in our advocacy efforts to ensure less government intervention, lower taxes and a better bottom line. For more information about OCA membership, the theft reward program or activities call 405-235-4391 or visit www.okcattlemen.org.
