Lazy E Arena Honored by Oklahoma Cattlemen

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA., July 21, 2018 – The Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association (OCA) honored Lazy E Arena as the Allied Industry Award Winner. The award was presented during the recent OCA Convention and Trade Show. The Allied Industry Award was developed to recognize industry leaders who have gone above and beyond to provide support to the OCA.

The Lazy E is committed to being the world's premier western entertainment facility. In 2015, the OCA Range Roundup moved back to the Lazy E Arena. There is no doubt that decision has made a huge impact on the event.

"The Lazy E absolutely rolls out the red carpet every year taking great care of the participants, fans and the kids and families from the Children's Hospital," said Michael Kelsey, OCA Executive Vice President.

The Lazy E staff is always looking for ways to enhance and grow the event. General Manager Dan Wall and his team of professional staff truly value OCA as a partner and the OCA Ranch Rodeo as one of their premier events.

"It is such a joy to work with Lazy E, the McKinney family and Dan and his great crew," Kelsey said. "They are professionals of the highest degree with a passion for cattlemen and women along with a great big heart for the Children's Hospital Foundation. I just can't imagine the OCA Ranch Rodeo at any other facility."

The OCA is the trusted voice of the Oklahoma Cattle Industry. OCA is the only voice that speaks solely for the cattlemen of Oklahoma and represents beef producers in all 77 counties across the state. The OCA officers, board of directors and membership encourages you to join us in our advocacy efforts to ensure less government intervention, lower taxes and a better bottom line. For more information about OCA membership, the theft reward program or activities call 405-235-4391 or visit www.okcattlemen.org.
