Oklahoma Cattlemen Honor Four Legislators

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK. July 21, 2018 – The Oklahoma Cattlemen’s Association (OCA) honored Representative Jon Echols and presented him with the 2018 OCA Legislative Appreciation Award during the recent OCA Convention and Trade Show.

“We are fortunate to have many friends in the Oklahoma legislature who know and value the importance of agriculture and specifically the beef cattle industry,” said Weston Givens, OCA President.

The recipients of the award include: Representative Kevin Wallace; Representative Scooter Park; Representative Jon Echols and Senator Casey Murdock.

“We are so excited to honor these four men with this award,” Givens said. “OCA is very appreciative of the leadership displayed by these legislators and their firm commitment to Oklahoma agriculture.”

The OCA is the trusted voice of the Oklahoma Cattle Industry. OCA is the only voice that speaks solely for the cattlemen of Oklahoma and represents beef producers in all 77 counties across the state. The OCA officers, board of directors and membership encourages you to join us in our advocacy efforts to ensure less government intervention, lower taxes and a better bottom line. For more information about OCA membership, the theft reward program or activities call 405-235-4391 or visit www.okcattlemen.org.
