Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association Comments on Thursday's Supreme Court Ruling

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., July 10, 2020 – The Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association (OCA) releases a statement on Thursday's U.S. Supreme Court ruling overturning a Denver Federal Appeals court decision that had upheld a state criminal prosecution on Indian land in eastern Oklahoma.

"Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association has engaged in this issue from the beginning concerned about the implications for our members," said Michael Kelsey, OCA Executive Vice President. "While we are working to understand the scope of the ruling, OCA is committed to proactively working with the state, Oklahoma's tribes and the federal government to find solutions that provide jurisdictional certainty for all Oklahomans."

The OCA is the trusted voice of the Oklahoma Cattle Industry. OCA is the only voice that speaks solely for the cattlemen of Oklahoma and represents beef producers in all 77 counties across the state. The OCA officers, board of directors and membership encourages you to join us in our advocacy efforts to ensure less government intervention, lower taxes and a better bottom line. For more information about OCA membership, the theft reward program or activities call 405-235-4391 or visit www.okcattlemen.org.
